

Cycling Photo Scavenger Hunt Whitby Edition

BIKE MONTH
2020
DURHAM
REGION
September

The Region of Durham challenges you to get on your bike this September and learn more about your community! Get outside and get active while visiting the natural areas, historic places and cultural sites that make Durham Region unique.

This edition of the Durham Region Cycling Photo Scavenger Hunt is brought to you by the Town of Whitby as part of their community Bike Month celebration.

How to Play

- At your own pace and by choosing your own route, ride your bike to each location identified on page two of this document. You can use this online map to see where the clues are located.
- Take a photo or video of you and your bike at as many locations as you can and submit them via social media using the hashtags #WhitbyBikeMonth and tagging @RegionOfDurham and @TownofWhitby on Facebook or Twitter.
- You can also submit your photos or videos to: ActiveTransportation@durham.ca
- Each submission counts as an entry into a prize draw! The more places you visit, the more chances you have to win! View the full contest rules and regulations here.

Waiver

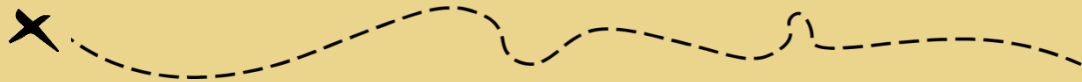

Participants of the Cycling Photo Scavenger Hunt bear full responsibility for their own safety.

The Cycling Photo Scavenger Hunt is available as part of Bike Month. The Regional Municipality of Durham makes no warranties of any kind with respect to the Cycling Photo Scavenger Hunt or the safe condition of any road, route, trail or facility participants use as part of the Cycling Photo Scavenger Hunt. Participants are solely responsible for the risks associated with participating in the Cycling Photo Scavenger Hunt, as well as their own safety. Cyclists are reminded that they must comply with the Highway Traffic Act and are strongly recommended to always use safety equipment when cycling. Participants agree to abide by all governmental regulations pertaining to health and safety, particularly with respect to physical distancing.

Cycling Photo Scavenger Hunt

Whitby Edition

Clues

Clue #1 - This house is now a museum on the waterfront - it was home to Whitby's first mayor. Take a selfie on the porch, wearing your helmet with the hashtag #WhitbyBikeMonth.

Clue #2 - This Community Centre on Myrtle Road was built in 1861 and has a different style of stonework on each wall. It served as a school for 105 years before being bought by Whitby for $2 and converted to a community centre. Post a picture of the centre through your front wheel with the hashtag #WhitbyBikeMonth.

Clue #3 - What is your favourite place to buy your cycling gear in town? Share a photo of where you can shop for bikes and post it with the hashtag #WhitbyBikeMonth.

Clue #4 - This is Whitby's northernmost library. Post a picture of your bike in the library's distinctive bike racks with the hashtag #WhitbyBikeMonth.

Clue #5 - Bike repair stands are being added to help cyclists keep their bikes safe and operational. Take a pic of your bike on any of the town's bike repair stands and post it with the hashtag #WhitbyBikeMonth.

Clue #6 - This log cabin in Cullen Central Park was originally built in 1830 in Orangeville, then moved here in 1981. It is a designated Ontario heritage building. Take a pic of the cabin with your bike and post it with the hashtag #WhitbyBikeMonth.

Clue #7 - Got a favourite place to ride? Post a picture of yourself at your go-to Town of Whitby cycling destination with the hashtag #WhitbyBikeMonth.

Clue #8 - This memorial commemorates the site of a military camp in Whitby where prisoners of war were held and where spies were trained. Post a picture of your helmet at the memorial with the hashtag #WhitbyBikeMonth.

Clue #9 - Whitby has been building Multi-Use Paths (MUPs) to allow cyclists to travel safely through town on busy streets. These double-wide asphalt paths are found along major roads like Garden Street, Rossland Road, Taunton Road and other places in town. Post a picture of an MUP in Whitby with the hashtag #WhitbyBikeMonth.

Clue #10 - Who is your favourite riding buddy? With their permission, post a pic of your best cycling friend and tag it #WhitbyBikeMonth.

