

Learning happens in environments that promote

Engagement

Children are engaged learners when they:

- ☑ Express joy and wonder in their encounters with the environment and other people
- ☑ Focus attention, manipulate, investigate, observe, question, test theories, and solve problems through play
- ☑ Engage with others to collaborate, create, and communicate feelings and ideas
- ☑ Play and explore materials to enhance understanding of literacy and numeracy

