

Durham Access to Social Housing (DASH)

How to Use the DASH Vacancies Site

Durham Access to Social Housing (DASH) manages the wait list for rent-geared-to-income (RGI) and modified housing in Durham. RGI or modified units may become available in social housing properties and with some private landlords in the region. These vacancies are posted to the Region of Durham's website at www.durham.ca/DASH. You can view the vacancies from a web browser on your desktop computer, laptop computer, mobile phone or tablet.

You must be on the wait list in order to view and express interest in RGI or modified unit vacancies. To be on the wait list, you must first complete the Application for Rent-Geared-to-Income \(RGI\) and Modified Housing form. If you are eligible for RGI, and/or a modified unit you will be placed on the wait list and given information to access the DASH Vacancies Site.

New RGI and modified unit vacancies are posted to the website as they become available, and stay posted for one week. If you are on the wait list, you may express interest in any vacancy that you see on the website any time during the week that it is posted. It does not matter when you express interest in a vacancy during the week that it is posted. You will be offered housing if your name is higher on the wait list than other people interested in the same vacancy – no matter when you expressed your interest.

This guide provides information about how to use the DASH Vacancies Site including how to:

- Register your account and set up a new user name and password
- Log in and out of the website
- View, express interest, and cancel interest in vacancies
- View a listing of the vacancies for which you have expressed interest, including information about successful applicants and offers of housing to you.

To use the DASH Vacancies Site, you must first complete the Application for RGI and Modified Housing form and then be placed on the wait list.

If this information is required in an accessible format, please contact 1-800-372-1102 ext. 2463.

You can find more information about the wait list and applying for RGI or modified housing on the Region of Durham's website at www.durham.ca/housing or by contacting:

How to log out

You should always make sure to log out after you have finished, especially if you are using a public computer (e.g. at the Housing Services Division, a library or another community agency).

1. In the top right-hand part of the screen – next to the sort buttons and just above vacancy listings – click the button with [Your Name] (Logout). You will be directed back to the DASH Log in page.

How to view available vacancies

New RGI and modified unit vacancies are posted to the website as they become available and stay posted for one week (7 days).

You should view all the information about a vacancy before you express interest in it. Make sure that you want to move into the unit and that you are able to move in on the date that it is available.

1. Log in to the DASH Vacancies Site at www.durham.ca/DASH.

If this information is required in an accessible format, please contact 1-800-372-1102 ext. 2463.

2. After you log in, you will be automatically directed to the List of Current Vacancies page.

You can express interest in moving into any of the vacancies listed below.
Please view the vacancies and express interest only at properties where you want to live.

The housing provider will contact you to offer you the unit if your name is higher on the waiting list than other people interested in the same vacancy. You will be expected to accept the offer. You will be removed from the Durham Access to Social Housing (DASH) wait list if you refuse three offers of housing.

New vacancies are posted as they become available and stay posted for one week.

How to express interest in a vacancy

New RGI and modified unit vacancies are posted to the website as they become available and stay posted for one week. It does not matter when you express interest in a vacancy during the week that it is posted. You will be offered housing if your name is higher on the wait list than other people interested in the same vacancy no matter when you expressed your interest.

You should view all the information about a vacancy before you express interest in it. Make sure that you want to move into the unit and that you are able to move in on the date that it is available. You should be prepared to accept an offer of housing for any vacancy for which you have expressed interest.

You can express interest in as many vacancies as you like, but you can only turn down three offers of housing before your name is removed from the wait list.

1. Log in to the DASH Vacancies Site at www.durham.ca/DASH. After you log in, you will be automatically directed to the List of Current Vacancies page.
2. Scroll through the vacancies (see “How to view available vacancies” above) to find vacancies of interest.
3. Once you have determined the vacancy for which you would like to express interest, click the green Express Interest button in the upper right of the listing.

If this information is required in an accessible format, please contact 1-800-372-1102 ext. 2463.

“Expressed Interest” will display, and the Express Interest button will turn into a Cancel Interest button.

You are now on the list to be considered for an offer of this unit. The housing provider will contact you if your name is higher on the list than all other applicants who expressed interest in the same vacancy.

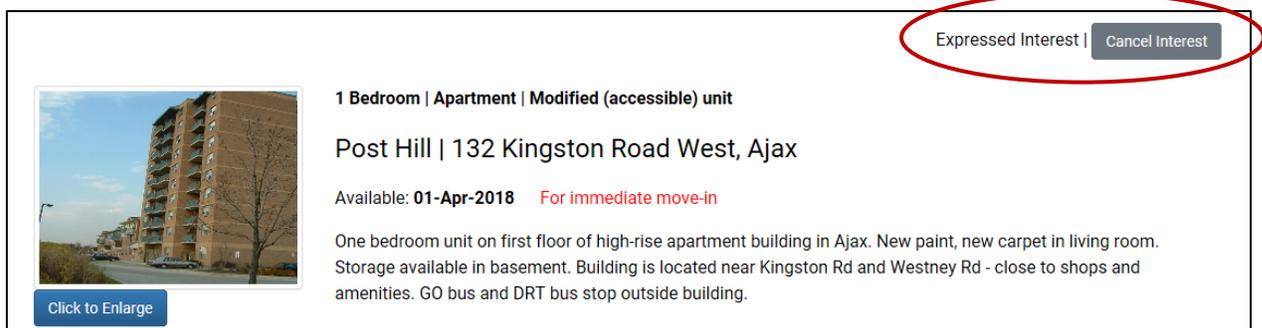

Repeat the steps 2-3 to express interest in more vacancies.

How to cancel an expression of interest in a vacancy

If you express interest in a vacancy and no longer want to be considered for it, you can cancel your expression of interest as long as the vacancy is still posted on the List of Current Vacancies page.

You can express interest in the vacancy again as long as it is still posted to the List of Current Vacancies page. Vacancies stay posted for one week (7 days).

1. Log in to the DASH Vacancies Site at www.durham.ca/DASH. After you log in, you will be automatically directed to the List of Current Vacancies page.
2. Click the Cancel Interest button next to the vacancy for which you would like to cancel your interest.

You are now removed from the list to be considered for an offer of this unit. You can express interest in the vacancy again as long as it is still posted to the List of Current Vacancies page. See “How to express interest in a vacancy” above.

How to view your expressions of interest in vacancies

You can see a listing of all the vacancies for which you have expressed interest. This list includes both current vacancies and vacancies that have been filled. The list shows basic information about the vacancy, as well as the application date and priority status of the applicant that was offered the unit.

Successful applicants will be the highest applicant on the wait list who expressed interest in the same vacancy. Applicants are ranked according to their date of application and priority status. Earlier applicants are higher on the list. Priority may be Special Priority for victims of violence, Critical Priority for applicants with extraordinary costs or Overhoused tenants/co-op members who are required to move to a smaller unit.

Offers of vacant RGI and modified units are made outside of the DASH Vacancies Site, but you can view the outcome of any offers to you in the list of vacancies for which you have expressed interest.

If this information is required in an accessible format, please contact 1-800-372-1102 ext. 2463.

1. Log in to the DASH Vacancies Site at www.durham.ca/DASH. After you log in, you will be automatically directed to the List of Current Vacancies page.
2. Click on the Go to My Expressions of Interest button at the top right of the page.
3. You are now on the My Expressions of Interest page.

This page shows a listing of all vacancies for which you have expressed interest, including information about the successful applicant if the vacancy has been filled. Expressions of interest are listed in order of the date they were available for move-in with earlier move-in dates at the top of the list.

Scroll down to browse vacancies. Vacancies can also be sorted per column headings. Up and down arrows will appear when the list is sorted.
