

Reporting hate matters

Canadian
Race Relations
Foundation

Learn more at durham.ca/Anti-Hate

If you require this information in an alternate accessible format, please contact 311 or the Accessibility Coordinator at accessibility@durham.ca or 1-800-372-1102, extension 2009.

Scan the QR code to complete the
Together Against Hate Durham
Community
Feedback Survey

How to report hate in Durham Region

In an emergency, call 911—Connect immediately with Durham Regional Police Services (DRPS) and first responders.

In a non-emergency situation call the DRPS non-emergency line

1-888-579-1520 or 905-579-1520 (Press 0)

An officer will investigate and assign an occurrence number.

Record this number and the officers contact info for follow up.

Email

hatecrime@drps.ca

Send details directly to DRPS. Note—this inbox is checked daily but not monitored 24/7.

Online hate

- Save evidence (screenshots)
- Don't share harmful content online
- Use platform reporting tools and share evidence with police services if necessary

Community-based hate reporting program

Launching in early 2026 and developed with Victim Services of Durham Region, this program offers:

- Multiple ways to report—phone, mobile, online
- Safe, confidential, trauma-informed support
- Culturally responsive resources
- Emotional and mental health services